

General Assembly:

Why Marie Ginette AMANI created the AMAN-International Foundation?

Abidjan (14.10.2004) - On the initiative of the Founding President of the AMAN-International Foundation (FAI), a general assembly was held to validate all the founding texts.

Marie Ginette AMANI, Founding President and President of the FAI Board of Directors, convened a general assembly in which the founding members of the FAI took part.

Before starting the work of the General Assembly, the President shared her vision and explained to the assembly why she created this Foundation. On this occasion, she informed the audience that she had given several interviews to the press in order to express herself on the Foundation's program.

The texts previously elaborated in 2003 were validated by the general assembly, which unanimously shared the vision of the President.

Subsequently, the members of the Executive Board and the Management Board of FAI were confirmed according to the procedures indicated in the statutes and internal regulations of the AMAN-International Foundation.

The meeting ended in a friendly atmosphere and with great motivation.
